Texas FFA,

Hello Texas FFA, welcome to the 92nd Annual Texas FFA Convention! Although convention this year looks quite different, the purpose of coming together remains the same. When I think back to my first experience in the sea of blue and gold I recall the overwhelming feeling I had when we were asked, “FFA members why are we here?” This important question has allowed me to evaluate what I strive for. My favorite quote comes from my grandmother, “Leave this world better than you found it.” I believe the way I can leave this organization better than I found it is by serving you relentlessly with passion. Not only is it important to know your passion, but your purpose. I am excited to discover our purposes and continue to leave things better than we found them, together! Over the next 365 days, I would love the opportunity to guide you on a path to success in pursuing your wildest dreams by serving as your State President.
